Linux Expo

iNsu Innovations Inc. (“iNsu”), a subsidiary of Golden Sky Ventures International Inc., is pleased to introduce iNdiskless/schools (the “Kit”) at the Linux Expo in Montréal, taking place from April 10th to the 12th (www.linuxexpocanada.com), in booth number 925. iNsu will also present a conference on April 12th in room 411C between 2pm and 5:30pm.

The unique Kit unifies entire networks, through X-Terminals providing low-cost Internet access. iNsu offers specially designed Linux servers providing four basic functions:

- Supports very low-cost X-Terminals
- Acts as a file/application server for various platforms (Linux, Mac and Windows)
- Acts as a print server for various platforms (Linux, Mac and Windows)
- Integrates seamlessly with other DHCP servers

As of April 11, 2000 the Kit will be available as an initial developer’s release, under the GPL license, at <http://indev.insu.com>. A full release is scheduled for release early May 2000. For more information, please contact Daniel Shane or Christian Roy at (514) 336-5544, ext. 292.
